Drug addict jailed for stabbing officer

HULU SELANGOR: A drug addict who stabbed a National Anti-Drug Agency (AADK) enforcement officer during a raid, has been jailed 12 years by a Sessions Court.

Judge Zulhelmy Hasan also ordered Suhaimi Aderus, 44, to be whipped six times after he pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday.

The judge said the stabbing caused the officer to suffer serious injury.

The sentence was to run from Sept 26, the day the accused was detained.

The night market trader was accused of voluntarily causing grievous hurt to Baharudin Abdullah, 32, at a house in Kampung Kuantan, Sungai Masin, Batang Kali at 11.30pm on Sept 25.
