

05 OKTOBER 2017

Drugs found in hollowed-out stilts

Drugs found in hollowed-out house stilts

KOTA KINABALU: Two female suspects were arrested at their house in Kampung Pondoh water village in Pulau Gaya after 1kg of syabu were found in hollowed-out house stilts.

Narcotics police arrested the duo, aged 36 and 26, during a raid on Monday.

They found three trunks that looked like house stilts containing drugs in 33 small packets.

Kota Kinabalu police chief ACP M. Chandra said it was the largest drug bust by the city police.

The suspects, who are divorcees, were remanded for a week. Police are looking for more suspects.