

16 OKTOBER 2017

Man held for hiding drugs at poultry farm

DRUG TRAFFICKING

Man held for hiding drugs at poultry farm

BESUT: A man who used his poultry farm to store drugs was arrested by a team of policemen from the Kuala Besut police station.

District police chief Superintendent Mohd Zamri Mohd Rowi said following a tip-off, the 30-year-old man from Kampung Seri Kemunting, Kuala Besut, was picked up in Kampung Alor Teratai, Kuala Besut, on Friday at 6pm.

“Following his arrest, the suspect led the team to the farm where our men found 198 stimulant pills hidden there,” he said yesterday.

Zamri said the suspect was taken to the Kampung Raja police station where he tested positive for methamphetamine.

The suspect is being investigated under Section 39A(1) of the Dangerous Drug Act 1952 for drug trafficking. The offence carries a mandatory death sentence.