A PREGNANT woman was traumatised after a motorcyclist went berserk and smashed her car's windscreen at Lebuh Kampung Jawa here yesterday.

The motorcyclist used his helmet and hammer to break the vehicle's windscreen in the 8.42am incident.

The incident happened when the 27-year-old woman, who is five months pregnant, was on her way to drop off her sister at her workplace.

A source said the woman had slowed her car down to turn to the right but the motorcyclist hit the front-left side of the car.

"When the woman said she wanted to lodge a police report about the incident, the man became angry and started to smash her car's windscreen," the source added.

A police report lodged in relation to the incident.

Southwest district police chief Superintendent A. Anbalagan said that the 31-year-old motorcyclist had been arrested to assist in investigation.

"Checks showed that the man has a criminal record and was involved in drugs. He also tested positive for drugs and we have seized the helmet and the hammer," he said.

The case is being investigated under Section 427 of the Penal Code for committing mischief.
