THE freedom to choose any sexual partner and unlimited access to drugs and high-end alcohol — all for just RM100 to RM200.

These were among the plus points a syndicate used to sell two wild, 12-hour sex parties they organised last week using the WeChat mobile application to promote the events.

And while some of their customers were adults, the majority were those who were in their teens, including a 14-year-old girl.

City police chief Datuk Seri Mazlan Lazim said police, who got wind of the events, raided two condominium units in Jalan Ceylon and Jalan Ampang on Tuesday and Friday.

"In the first operation, in Jalan Ceylon, at 5.45pm on Tuesday, we arrested 15 people aged between 19 and 44. Nine of them were men, including four Thai nationals, while two women were Indonesians.

"During the raid, all 15 were high on drugs, and this was confirmed by urine tests.

"Checks at the condominium unit turned up 4,000 Eramin-5 pills worth about RM60,000, 19 Ecstasy pills and 2g of ketamine," he said at the city police headquarters here yesterday.

He said the second raid on Friday at 5.15pm saw 53 people arrested, including 29 men.

He said the youngest was a 14-year-old Indonesian girl.

Participants of one of the sex parties held in Kuala Lumpur recently.

"In one room, we found six men and three women aged between 17 and 29, along with cannabis. In another room, we found 23 men and 21 women aged between 14 and 27, along with 25 Ecstasy pills," he said, adding that all 53 tested positive for drugs.

Mazlan said the two raids saw two of the syndicate's members arrested. They were aged 27 and 44.

"The syndicate promoted their activities via WeChat.

"All their 'customers' have to pay is between RM100 and RM200 to take part in their parties, which began at noon and ended at midnight.

"The syndicate supplies the drugs and alcohol to the participants, who are free to have sex with anyone there. These parties are aimed at underage teens as they are too young to enter entertainment outlets."

Mazlan said investigations showed the syndicate rented the condominium unit in Jalan Ceylon for RM900 a night and the one in Jalan Ampang for RM1,300 a night.

"Those with information on such parties should contact a police station.

"I advise parents to always be aware of what their children are doing so that they don't get caught up in such activities."
