

Cambodian, Nigerian nabbed at KLIA for carrying drugs

By LIM WEY WEN

SEPANG: A Cambodian national and Nigerian student have been arrested at the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) for carrying 4.15kg of drugs worth RM1.037mil.

KLIA customs director Datuk Govinden Mutosamy said both were arrested Wednesday after Customs officers found methamphetamine in secret compartments in their luggage.

"This is the first time a Cambodian national has been arrested (for drug possession) at the KLIA," said Govinden.
