KUALA TERENGGANU: Two policemen have been detained for possessing methamphetamine and syabu in Paka, Dungun.

The policemen, a lance corporal and a corporal, were detained at about 2.25am.

Terengganu deputy police chief Senior Asst Comm Datuk Hamzah Mohd Jamil said the policemen, aged 31 and 26, were from the Pahang and Selangor police contingents respectively.

“Acting on a tip-off, we detained both suspects in a Proton Pesona parked in front of a shop.

“Upon inspection, we discovered 6gm of syabu and 27 methamphetamine pills hidden in the boot,” he said yesterday.

“Both suspects also tested positive for methamphetamine.

“They have been remanded to facilitate investigations into the matter,” he said.

It is learnt that both suspects were also involved in robbery cases in the area.
