

Iranian gets death

SHAH ALAM: An Iranian was sentenced to death by the High Court yesterday for trafficking in drugs.

Judge Noor Azian Shaari sentenced Abbas Shirazi, 23, a factory worker, after finding him guilty of trafficking in 312.2g of methamphetamine at the Kuala Lumpur International Airport on June 15, 2010.

She said the accused's defence claiming he had no knowledge of the drugs was unreasonable. She said the defence had failed to raise a reasonable doubt in the prosecution's case.
