

Thursday, 10 November 2016

MACC officer sacked over drug conviction

MACC OFFICER SACKED OVER DRUG CONVICTION

KUALA LUMPUR: The Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) has sacked one of its officers, Muhammad Nazrin Abdullah, effective Nov 1 for being involved in drugs. The commission said its disciplinary board made the decision after Muhammad Nazrin was found guilty by a court in September. "MACC takes a serious view of this case and cannot compromise on its officers violating the organisation's rules." – Bernama