Nigerian gets death for drug trafficking

ALOR STAR: A Nigerian youth was yesterday sentenced to death by the High Court here after he was found guilty of trafficking in 18.8kg ganja two years ago.

James Kamara, 23, remained calm when judicial commissioner Mohd Zaki Abdul Wahab meted out the sentence.

According to the facts, Kamara was arrested with 18,810g of ganja at the Shahab Perdana express bus terminal at 9.05pm on Sept 13, 2010.

Customs Department deputy public prosecutor Nur Sarah Dina Baharudin prosecuted while Kamara was represented by Burhanudeen Abdul Wahid.
