

Three traffickers, an addict detained with air rifle, drugs worth RM6,000

Posted on 15 January 2014 - 03:39pm

Last updated on 15 January 2014 - 05:55pm

BESUT (Jan 15, 2014): Three men were detained together with an air rifle and drugs valued at RM6,000 in a raid carried out by the Narcotics Crime Investigation Department (BSJN) in Kampung Batu Tumbuh, Kampung Raja, here last Tuesday.

During the raid, a local and two others from Pahang and Kelantan were detained.

Besut Police Chief, Supt Kamaruddin Mohd Zakaria said police found 11 plastic bottles, four straw tubes and 90 pills that were believed to be drugs from the three men during the raid.

"In addition, police also seized an air rifle with 12 bullets of 'ball bearing' type that were believed to belong to one of the suspects," he told reporters, here today.

He said, all the suspects, aged between 28 and 37, were detained for further investigations.

Kamaruddin said that investigations revealed that the three suspects were actually hardcore addicts and had started the drug trafficking activity several months ago in Besut.

He said, the three suspects were tested positive for drugs. – Bernama