DRUG PEDDLERS USING TAXI DETAINED

SERDANG: Police have nabbed two drug traffickers who were using a taxi to transport drugs in Seri Kembangan on Monday. Serdang district police chief ACP Ismadi Borhan said the suspects, in their 30s and 40s, were believed to have been distributing drugs in Serdang for at least six months. "About 1kg of syabu was seized during the arrest. Its estimated value is between RM150,000 and RM200,000," he told reporters at the Serdang district police headquarters yesterday.
