

Driver high on meth kills senior citizen in car crash

March 23 , 2022

Driver high on meth kills senior citizen in car crash

KUALA KRAI: A senior citizen was killed and two others injured when the car they were travelling in collided with another car driven by a man under the influence of methamphetamine at Km.66 of Jalan Kota Baru-Gua Musang near Sungai Durian here on Monday. Kuala Krai district police chief Superintendent Suzaimi Mohamad said the Perodua Myvi driver, 31, broke his right leg in the 9.30am crash. "Investigations revealed that the driver of the Perodua Myvi, travelling from Kota Baru and heading to Gua Musang, lost control of his car which entered the opposing lane and collided with a Proton Waja. The Proton Waja driver, Mohamad Umar, 70, from Kampung Padang Nenas Belanga, Kuala Krai died at the scene while the two unidentified male passengers were hurt." Bernamea